Clocktower Centre
Alive with performance, community & creativity

Welcome to the Clocktower Centre

For over 20 years, the Clocktower Centre has been home to performing arts for Moonee Valley locals and beyond, bringing some extraordinary performances to the stage.

With the unprecedented year that was 2020, the Clocktower was forced to close its door and cancel a majority of Theatre Season shows. However, in 2021 we look forward to welcoming our loyal patrons and community members back to the theatre.

We hope to see you at the Clocktower Centre soon.

A photograph of the Clocktower Centre building, a multi-story structure with a prominent clock tower. The building's name, "Clocktower Centre", is written in large, red, stylized letters across the front. Below the name, the address "750 Mount Alexander Road" is visible. The sky is blue with some clouds. The image is partially overlaid by a large purple circle on the left and a blue circle on the right.

The Spooky Men's Chorale

Men singing songs.
Some of them are funny.

The Spooky Men's Chorale is a vast, rumbling, steam-powered and black-clad behemoth, capable of rendering audiences moist-eyed with mute appreciation or haplessly gurgling with merriment. Through an evening of drop deadpan beautiful mansinging, the Spooky Men's Chorale ponder the conundrums of modern life and manhood, invite the audience to joyously experience a wall of mansound, laugh stupidly, and venture into areas of great tenderness. It is not so much comedic as hilarious, not so much shimmeringly perfect as pleasingly and deeply human.
